FULLSTACK DEVELOPER

Full-stack web developer who loves NFT's and web3 technologies. My experience exploring the web3 landscape guides me in everything that I do: making decisions in fast-paced development environments and tunneling down on high priority problems in ambiguous situations. I am self-taught on all things web3 which has trained me to always be learning, keep pushing out of my intellectual comfort zone, and constantly reach out to other collectors for data analysis. Some of my favorite NFT/Crypto people include Richerd.eth, DCLBlogger, The DeFi Edge, and OxBender. My favorite NFT projects include The Metakey, Creature World, RTFKT Studios, Treeverse, VeeFriends, Azukis, and Doodles.

TECHNICAL PROJECTS

Rotating Art Gallery - GitHub | Deployed App - React | CSS Grid | Framer Motion | Modulenft API

Dynamically view your NFTs like a rotating art gallery.

- Implemented a search bar to a input wallet address or an Opensea account name to look at a wallet's NFTs
- Created arrow buttons to manually view specific NFTs if user wants to find a specific token
- Automated the rotation of NFTs being viewed so the user can have a frictionless experience

Pomodoro App - GitHub | Deployed App - React | Mongoose | Node.js | Express.js

Time yourself to stay focused and motivated when studying or working.

- Built a Task List section to add, delete, or edit tasks the user needs for their work.
- Established a Metrics Container section to see how many study sessions and breaks have been completed.
- Assemble a timer that can start, stop, and repeat so the user can notice time left until a session ends.
